++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Largely dry and clear overnight. Cloudy but mostly dry tomorrow.

This Evening and Tonight:
Rather cloudy with a few light showers this evening, but these will soon die away to leave a mostly dry night with clear spells. However, cloud will increase towards dawn with some patchy light rain possible across the north. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Tuesday:
A rather breezy and cloudy day for most, with the odd spot of light rain possible at times. Drier across the southwest of the region with some brighter spells. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Largely dry Wednesday with some bright spells. Showers developing Thursday, heavy in places. Cloudy on Friday with some patchy rain possibly spreading into western parts, but becoming warm further east.
